

Watcher's Notes

This project is a labor of love that has carried me through a year of anxiety, frustration, loneliness, sadness, stress — I could go on, because 2020 was an endless sea of negativity. Turning to nostalgia to cope, the Buffyverse was a lighthouse guiding me to the shore. Rewatching the series (and Angel) and being introduced to the podcasts Buffering the Vampire Slayer and Slayerfect '98 brought me moments of comfort, levity, and above all, hope. I was reminded time and again to be strong. "Strong is fighting," Buffy said. "It's hard and it's painful, and it's everyday. It's what we have to do. And we can do it together." So this is for you, to remind you to just keep fighting, and to thank you for always reminding me. From one scoby to another,

Love, Bryan

Into every generation a slayer is born:

one girl in all the world; a chosen one.

She alone will wield the strength and skill to fight the vampires, demons, and the forces of darkness;

to stop the spread of their evil

and the swell of their number.

She is the Slayer.

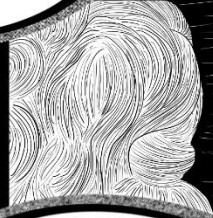

WHO ARE YOU?

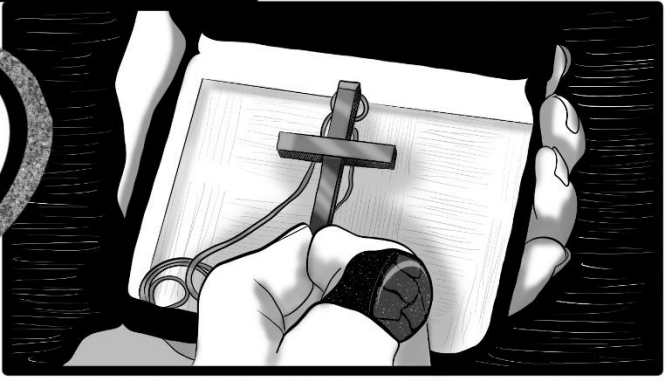

LET'S JUST SAY I'M A FRIEND.

YEAH, WELL MAYBE I DON'T WANT A FRIEND.

I DIDN'T SAY I WAS YOURS.

Who's gentle of heart and nimble with a hard drive?

Willow!

No song for you!
